4th Sunday after Epiphany

Today's Theme

The Beatitudes make little sense. Being merciful is good, but being persecuted for righteousness? Would it not be better to do good and not be persecuted? What is Jesus actually saying here?

* Indicates stand as you are able.

The congregation shall read the bold-faced print.

Gathering

Lighting of the Christ Candle:

Acknowledging Traditional Territory:

Introit:* VU 374 Come and Find the Quiet Centre, verse 1

Call to Worship:*

One: God calls us to this place,

All: to sing and pray,

One: to listen and receive the word,

All: to remember and to share

One: in this holy time God provides for us.

All: Thanks be to God!

Hymn:* VU 341 Fairest Lord Jesus

Opening Prayer

God of abundance and generosity, you call us to celebrate your love each and every day, so love will overcome divisions and build a bridge to unity. You call us to lift our hearts in prayer and praise and to raise our spirits in holy song. Lift our worship to greater heights this day. Make our prayers deep enough to plumb the depths of our souls and bring us to your throne of overflowing grace. Amen.

Sending Forth

Commissioning and Benediction:*

One: Go and proclaim the simple message of hope:

All: that God is Love, always sustaining all creation.

One: Go and live out the complex reality of faith:
All: that Jesus calls us to live with compassion and generosity in a world that struggles to perceive Love's power.
One: Go and become disciples alive:
All: for the Spirit guides and prods and enlivens,
but always accompanies us.
